

If you are interested in feminist art and social change,

please join staff members of

The Kentucky Foundation for Women

for an interactive

ARTIST ENRICHMENT GRANT

WORKSHOP

in

CARTER CAVES

SATURDAY, AUGUST 7, 9:30AM-12:30PM

CARTER CAVES STATE PARK

344 Caveland Dr., Olive Hill

9:30-10:30 – Feminism and Art for Social Change

10:30-11:30 – Artistic Journey / Intro to Impact

11:30-12:30 – Applying for a 2010 Artist Enrichment Grant

Join us to explore what it means to be a feminist social change artist, and to meet and network with other feminist artists and activists in your area. Learn about KFW opportunities, such as KFW's two grant programs and the residency center, and how to apply for KFW's Artist Enrichment grant. KFW staff Rae Strobel and Sue Masek will lead the workshop. The meeting is free and open to anyone committed to improving women's lives through art. Materials and light meal provided.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL THE KFW OFFICE OR VISIT WWW.KFW.ORG

PLEASE RSVP BY CONTACTING SUE AT THE KFW OFFICE, 502-562-0045, TOLL FREE AT 866-654-7564 OR SUE@KFW.ORG.

KFW believes in the transformative power of feminist art to create positive social change in our state, because when women and girls advance, so does Kentucky.